

11:13:03 From Karen Rouse New York Public Radio, WNYC : On Sarah's mapping, how is NJ.com and the Star-Ledger counted. Are they counted twice - digital and "newspaper"?

11:13:12 From Jennifer Wager : Yesssss Hycide!

11:13:36 From Kenny M, Facilitator (he/him) : Hycide magazine needs to be on the list as well!

11:13:40 From Kimberlee Williams : I really appreciate this information, Hi Brit! Lincoln Park neighbors. <http://newarkbusinesshub.com> + <http://femworks.co> + <http://newark.rutgers.edu>

11:14:09 From Akintola Hanif HYCIDE magazine (he,him,his) : Thank you all

11:14:30 From Karen Rouse New York Public Radio, WNYC : Same for NorthJersey.com and The Record(Bergen)

11:16:34 From Kimberlee Williams : Say that Brit!!!

11:16:44 From Kacy O'Brien (she/her/hers) : Hear Hear Brit!

11:17:40 From Kimberlee Williams : When do we talk about the business of news and how to help scale the business owners their enterprise through investment and resourcing and education.

11:17:50 From Jennifer Wager : North Jersey Mutual Aid on Facebook was big news source for COVID

11:18:41 From Lee Whack : Great points, Brit. I feel that it is important that outlets are quoting and getting information from atypical sources. At Chalkbeat we have a Reader Advisory Board, they inform us as we report on our stories. We have to keep giving voice to the "voiceless". I know people in this group are doing that type of work.

11:18:53 From Kimberlee Williams : That's wholistic news - moving beyond sourcing news to caring and engaging for community

11:18:55 From Joe Amditis, facilitator (he/him) : I'm going to close the poll soon, so make sure you log your votes!

11:19:00 From Kimberlee Williams : That's a thesis Brit!

11:19:49 From johnsonlav : Well said Brit!!!

11:20:22 From Liza Gross-SJN She/Her : Can we please retire the expression "giving voice to the voiceless" and the asymmetrical power structure it conveys? Everyone has a voice. It is just that media chose not to listen to certain voices.

11:20:50 From Igor Alves : Here here Kimberlee!

11:21:19 From Lee Whack : Liza, I hear that point. That is why I put it in quotes, but I fully embrace your point

11:21:32 From Liza Gross-SJN She/Her : Thank you Lee!

11:21:55 From Julie Winokur : I totally agree with Liza!

11:22:09 From Lee Whack : Yes and thank you, I believe it is important to call things like that out, language matters, especially for the greater good and better understanding among us all

11:22:23 From Naeema Campbell (she/her) : Great point, Kimberlee!

11:22:27 From Igor Alves : Interesting in seeing more around funding models for sure: Corporate / Foundation / Government / Universities / Audience-supported

11:23:41 From Jennifer Wager : There are NJ news sources that I largely avoid because of their often negative, racist coverage of Newark ie NJ.com

11:24:04 From Jennifer Wager : Truth Kaia.
11:24:33 From Daniel Joseph Wiley : 100!
11:24:40 From Brit Harley - Facilitator - she/her : Truth
11:24:53 From Yvonne Shirley : Snap Snap
11:25:10 From Kenny M, Facilitator (he/him) : Thank you, Kaia!
11:25:16 From Stacy Raheem : Truth to power!
11:25:23 From Yvonne Shirley : Say that
11:25:24 From johnsonlav : Speak it Kaia!!!
11:25:24 From vanessablake : Say that Kaia!
11:25:27 From Jennifer Wager : media sharecroppers snap snap omfg yes
11:25:54 From Kimberlee Williams : Go head Sis. We have to start our own table.
11:26:19 From Yvonne Shirley : $$$$$$
11:26:21 From Carla Robinson : Well said!
11:26:37 From Yvonne Shirley : Ase
11:26:52 From Stacy Raheem : Give her the money
11:27:28 From Jennifer Wager : and it's literally life and death right now
11:27:35 From Yvonne Shirley : literally
11:27:45 From Vanessa Maria Graber (she.her) Faciltator : Media Reparations!
11:28:10 From Kenny M, Facilitator (he/him) : It's hard to stay in business to report the news on communities if you don't have the funds to sustain your business model.
11:28:46 From Karen Rouse New York Public Radio, WNYC : Yes, this is the opportunity to get the access that has not existed.
11:31:37 From Liza Gross-SJN She/Her : Yes Lee!!!
11:32:13 From Tim Raphael : Apologies to all for leaving this important conversation. I have a Zoom meeting with my staff but will check out the recording of the last half hour of the meeting
11:32:25 From Vanessa Maria Graber (she.her) Faciltator : Thanks, Time!
11:32:28 From Vanessa Maria Graber (she.her) Faciltator : Tim
11:32:42 From johnsonlav : Speak it Lee!!!
11:33:33 From Kimberlee Williams : Agreed unusual partnership are required to respond to these unprecedented times
11:34:45 From Kimberlee Williams : How to build the capacity, build the structure, of small business owners of media. So that they are "qualified" for funding, investment, contracts etc.
11:34:46 From Jessica L. (she/her) : YES.
11:34:52 From Jennifer Wager : and funding has to be sustained not just throw some $$$ at NewArk for a couple years a& then forget about us for another 20 years
11:35:41 From Stefanie Murray, facilitator, (she/her) : Yes, agreed, Jennifer.
11:35:44 From vanessablake : Absolutely Jennifer!
11:36:13 From Kimberlee Williams : How do we together more aggressively attract funding at greater dollars commensurate to our true contribution to the growth and sustainability of the community
11:37:57 From Mike Rispoli, facilitator (he/him) : lets have more uncomfortable conversations. and reckon with how newark has been and is currently covered that is problematic and racist in so many ways. repairing that is required before we move forward on reimagining how to better inform residents and support Black mediamakers. Thank you Kaia for bringing what you shared into this space

11:39:31 From Vanessa Maria Graber (she/her) Facilitator : In order to try to come up with solutions to information gaps, we must also include conversations about structural racism and how structures of white supremacy uphold power and control over resources and media platforms. Thank you Kaia for naming the problem.

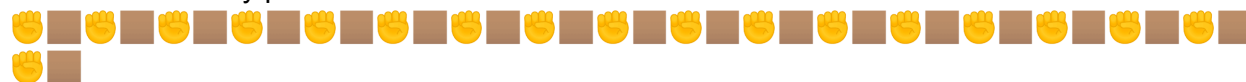

11:44:11 From Jennifer Wager : Look y'all she just gave your $45k worth of consulting labor. So I would hope that MSU with all its resources has the political will to get real money to fund Black, Latinx, Youth, LGBTQ, Immigrant journalism in the greater Newark metro area (bcus NOONE talks about Irvington let's be real). So if you're asking us to spend 3 hours of our pandemic lives & giving our labor to this then we need to see you working just as hard if not harder. IJS.

11:45:29 From Kenny M, Facilitator (he/him) : I hope we all stay connected after this workshop.

11:46:10 From Kenny M, Facilitator (he/him) : <https://www.linkedin.com/feed/>

11:46:20 From Jennifer Wager : I have jump off for another zoom but thanks all the participants! Have a great day!

11:46:28 From Kaia Shivers of Ark Republic : Oh thank you all. I just figured out how to see the chat on my phone.

11:46:29 From Stefanie Murray, facilitator, (she/her) : Jennifer, happy to talk to you about our Center's abilities to fundraise. Thanks for being with us!

11:46:34 From Kenny M, Facilitator (he/him) : Thanks, Jennifer.

11:46:55 From Kaia Shivers of Ark Republic : media reparations I like that

11:47:27 From Kacy O'Brien (she/her/hers) : Sarah - can we share this info out or are you only looking to do a randomized trial of the 50K people whose numbers you have? Can we share this out with our networks in Newark and encourage them to fill out the survey?

11:47:46 From Mike Rispoli, facilitator (he/him) : To your point Kaia, Free Press is launching a project next month on Media Reparations, more here:

<https://muckrack.com/blog/2020/07/16/free-press-media-2070>

11:47:54 From Kacy O'Brien (she/her/hers) : We would be sending by email/newsletter, etc.

11:48:49 From Sarah Alvarez (she/her) : You all can absolutely share out the number with any of your networks. There will be a toolkit to help make that easier.

11:49:01 From Kacy O'Brien (she/her/hers) : Great!

11:51:02 From Fiona Morgan, facilitator (she/her) : Being candid about $, resources and power is so important. I want to give an example of how this kind of conversation we're having today can help get $ flowing toward truly community-based news. Stefanie and I co-hosted a meeting like this in Cleveland and these are the first round of grants and projects that resulted. There are more grants being made and more funders coming to the table.

<https://www.clevelandfoundation.org/news/supporting-community-news-and-information/>

11:52:20 From Meghan Van Dyk (she/her/hers) : The Dodge Foundation and other funders on this call are listening — and we know we have to do more and better in using our power to raise funding to serve the news and information gap in Newark and other BIPOC communities in New Jersey. At Dodge, we acknowledge our investments - not only grant funding but other resources - have benefitted white organizations, leaders, and communities. We're working to shift our practices and direct resources where the need is. My email is mvandyk@grdodge.org.

11:52:23 From Fiona Morgan, facilitator (she/her) : When people and orgs with $ say they want to fund local news, it's really important that there are tables like this one to guide that investment

11:52:26 From Sarah Alvarez (she/her) : If anybody wants to get in touch with me I'm at sarah@outliermedia.org. It is true that this work is exhausting and challenging and we have always had to rely on a support system of people working on similar projects and with similar challenges.
